

Marital & Family

Family matters can get complicated, often involving children or complex financial issues and causing emotional distress and anxiety. That is why, when dealing with family matters, you need more than a lawyer on your side. You need a trusted advisor. Greenspoon Marder's Marital & Family Law Practice Group has nearly a century of collective experience in a wide range of matters, from the seemingly straightforward to the most difficult of cases. Our attorneys have extensive trial and appellate experience, a point of distinction that not all attorneys can claim. Our team has the experience required to take your case from beginning to end, even if it requires litigation. Our attorneys are focused on delivering legal services that meet the highest standards in the industry and all with a personal touch.

From simple to complex, Greenspoon Marder's Marital & Family Law Practice Group and attorneys are equipped to handle cases of all sizes and focus on providing a vast range of personalized services including:

- Adoption Consultation
- Alimony, Child Support & Enforcement
- Child Custody & Shared Parental Responsibility
- Cohabitation Agreements
- Dissolution of Marriage
- Division of Marital Properties
- Domestic Violence
- Family Mediation
- Guardians Ad Litem
- Guardianship
- Paternity
- Post-Judgment Modifications & Enforcement
- Pre-nuptial & Post-nuptial Agreements
- Surrogacy

Sometimes family law matters fall outside of the formal judicial process and require unconventional techniques in order to resolve disputes. The Marital & Family Law Practice Group at Greenspoon Marder has extensive experience in these alternative methods, which include but are not necessarily limited to:

- Arbitration
- Collaborative Law
- Mediation & Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Marchman Act (Substance Abuse Intervention)
