Associate in the Construction and Litigation practice groups at Greenspoon Marder LLP. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Luehs interned at a prominent real estate law firm, assisting with the representation of leading banks in lending transactions. Mr. Luehs supported the mortgage finance group by attending real estate closings on behalf of lenders, and preparing tax forms, mortgage agreements, as well as real estate contracts, for commercial, residential, condominium, and co-op transactions.

Mr. Luehs also has previously worked as a legal assistant at a boutique real estate and litigation firm in Northern New Jersey where he aided the firm's attorneys in preparation for trial and hearings before numerous planning and zoning boards.

Mr. Luehs obtained his Juris Doctor from New York Law School. While in law school, he served as the Dispute Resolution Team's Hosted Competition Chair and was an affiliate of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Skills Program. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from the Feliciano School of Business at Montclair State University.
