Cindy A. Crawford is a partner in the Marital & Family Law practice group at Greenspoon Marder. For nearly 15 years, she has focused her practice on representing clients in matters pertaining to complex dissolution of marriage, paternity, prenuptial agreements, alimony, child support, equitable distribution and parental responsibility. The breadth of Ms. Crawford's experience provides her with the ability to effectively and efficiently handle the various and nuanced legal issues that frequently present themselves in situations involving marriage and family. She prides herself on being an appropriate advocate for her clients while delivering exceptional service, accessibility, and discretion.

Prior to devoting her career to the practice of marital and family law, Ms. Crawford served as a felony prosecutor for the Office of the State Attorney, 15th Judicial Circuit, where she gained extensive courtroom experience by trying over 50 jury and non-jury trials. She also served as Chief of a Criminal Circuit Court Division and was responsible for training and overseeing junior attorneys.

Prior to relocating to Florida in 2002, she served as a judicial law clerk in the 19th Circuit of Virginia and practiced corporate law at a prestigious law firm in Washington, D.C.

Cindy has been recognized by her peers and selected for inclusion in Super Lawyers, in the area of marital and family law, each year since 2016. She was additionally recognized as a Rising Star in 2011. Further, Florida Trend's Legal Elite recognized her in 2016 and 2017 as a leading attorney in the area of marital and family law.
