Greenspoon Marder's Healthcare Law practice group specializes in navigating the intricate landscape of one of the most heavily regulated industries in the United States—healthcare. With an in-depth understanding of the ever-evolving statutes, regulations, and policies governing healthcare entities, our seasoned healthcare law attorneys offer invaluable experience.

We excel in representing and advising healthcare providers across a spectrum of critical areas, including regulatory compliance, criminal and civil enforcement defense, transactional matters, recoupment, reimbursement, and disciplinary issues. Our team has experience in representing physicians in disciplinary actions. Moreover, we've achieved notable success in investigating and prosecuting numerous healthcare fraud cases, resulting in multimillion-dollar recoveries.

Our team boasts diverse backgrounds, including senior regulatory counsel experience for a Fortune 500 healthcare company, focusing on compliance for ongoing and future ventures, as well as leading internal investigations related to healthcare regulatory matters. Additionally, our team has experience overseeing regulatory compliance, health information privacy, provider disciplinary matters, and negotiations with employee benefits providers.

With extensive proficiency in HIPAA, compliance programs, medical staff issues, contracting, and licensure matters, our practice group is well-equipped to guide clients through the intricacies of healthcare law. Beyond regulatory matters, our transactional and litigation lawyers bring substantial experience in advising healthcare industry clients on mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, labor and employment concerns, corporate structuring and financing, and bankruptcy filings.

Our clientele includes hospitals, physicians, physician organizations, networks, and more. At Greenspoon Marder, we are dedicated to providing comprehensive legal support tailored to the unique needs of the healthcare industry.
