Mark S. Horoupian is a partner in the Bankruptcy & Reorganization practice group at Greenspoon Marder where he focuses on bankruptcy, bankruptcy litigation, corporate restructurings, receiverships, assignments for the benefit of creditors and other non-bankruptcy insolvency solutions. He represents a wide spectrum of participants in the insolvency process, including creditors, creditors' committees, debtors in possession, Chapter 11 and Chapter 7 trustees, assignees for the benefit of creditors and acquirers of assets from bankruptcy estates. Mr. Horoupian also has substantial experience representing real estate developers in their individual Chapter 11 cases. Mr. Horoupian also acts as an assignee for the benefit of creditors.

Prior to joining Greenspoon Marder, he spent over 28 years at a boutique bankruptcy firm based in Los Angeles. He has served as lead counsel on several successful Chapter 11 reorganizations. Since 2004, Mr. Horoupian has been recognized annually as a "Southern California Super Lawyer," a distinction given to only 5% of Southern California attorneys.
