

GreenspoonMarder

Welcome to Greenspoon Marder's South Florida offices, your ports of entry to exceptional real estate legal services. With offices located in the hearts of metropolitan cities such as Miami, Fort Lauderdale, Boca Raton, and West Palm Beach, our firm offers unparalleled experience and commitment to serving clients in the region since 1981.

Serving Businesses and Clients of All Sizes

We take pride in serving individuals and businesses of all sizes alike. From timeshare and vacation ownership firms valued at over $1 billion to international property management companies, our team handles clients of all scopes and delivers consistent, comprehensive legal services that cater to your specific needs.

Whether you are purchasing acres of land for a residential or mixed-use development site, concerned with leasing disputes, or handling complex real estate transactions, we understand the challenges and opportunities that clients face in every facet of the real estate industry, and we are here to provide the proper guidance necessary to navigate these complex legal issues successfully.

Our Attorneys: Specialized & Personalized

Our attorneys are not only leaders in real estate law; they are dedicated professionals who prioritize being trailblazers in their communities by building strong relationships with not only real estate associations and legal organizations but also with our clients.

We believe that networking, collaboration, and having a genuine understanding of our clients' needs are the pillars of success. When you work with us, you can expect personalized attention and commitment to achieving your real estate objectives – every step of the way.

Handling All Real Estate Needs

Greenspoon Marder was founded nearly half a century ago with a focus on real estate law. Our highly skilled attorneys and staff are ready to help you in a variety of legal matters involving this intricate practice area. From robust zoning and planning support, assistance in commercial real estate acquisitions, reviewing tax planning, negotiating lending agreements, licensing and certifications for commercial developments, or needing all-encompassing guidance in the booming real estate industry, our attorneys possess both the knowledge and talent to meet your needs.

Our clients benefit from the expertise and resources of Greenspoon Marder's legal team comprised of over 240 full-service attorneys nationwide to find a tailored solution. We provide dedicated counsel in real estate law and facilitate any matter involving cross-disciplinary resources, such as banking and finance, corporate law, hospitality, alcohol and leisure, intellectual property, labor and employment, litigation, regulatory compliance, tax, and more.

Contact Our Real Estate Attorneys

When it comes to legal representation in South Florida, Greenspoon Marder is your trusted partner and has been for more than 40 years. Experience the difference in connecting with a firm that provides tailored representation with full-service capabilities to a variety of clients in the vibrant markets of South Florida. Contact us today to learn how our attorneys can help you achieve your legal ambitions and drive your business forward. Together, we can forge a path to success in the real estate industry.

Click here to meet our Real Estate team or contact info@gmlaw.com for more information.

