Tina Garcia is a senior counsel in Greenspoon Marder's Government Relations and Litigation practice groups. Ms. Garcia advises and represents various governmental agencies and municipalities with regards to education law, public records laws, tort law and various taxation matters. She has represented school boards, cities, community development districts, property appraisers offices, and other governmental entities.

In addition to her government practice, she assists clients with legal compliance and litigation involving highly regulated industries such as debt collections, telemarketing and timeshares. She also litigates state and federal claims involving fraud, breach of contract, landlord/tenant matters, and other business related torts.

Ms. Garcia is on the board of the Young Professional Advisory Council for the Orlando Economic Partnership. She also is a member of the Junior League of Greater Orlando where she spends her time mentoring adolescent women detained in local juvenile detention centers. Prior to moving to Florida, Ms. Garcia was an active member of the Hispanic Bar Association of the District of Columbia as well as the Women's Bar Association of the District of Columbia
