With nearly 40 years experience as an attorney and litigator, William Berger now focuses his efforts on the growth and development of Greenspoon Marder. He prides himself on being a businessman who practices law. He applies his business acumen, experience, and concierge-style approach to client service and has become a consultant and trusted advisor to his clients, colleagues and peers. His client list includes banks, insurance companies, businesses, real estate developers and country clubs, as well as numerous individuals.

Mr. Berger lends his years of experience to numerous business and economic development organizations, as well as to community and charitable groups.

President Obama honored Mr. Berger in 2010 with the President's Call to Service Award, which is the highest honor awarded by the President's office for extensive service to the community.
